BIRMINGHAM, Mich.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--OneStream Software, a leading enterprise finance platform for advancing financial close, consolidation, reporting, planning and forecasting, today announced its Annual Recurring Revenue (ARR) is over $450M, up 34% year-over-year, as of the first quarter ended March 31, 2024.

During this period, OneStream grew its customer base to over 1,400 customers globally, a 20% increase year-over-year. Notable new customers signed in this period include: Enerpac Tool Group, Fidelity & Guaranty Life, Healthpeak Properties Inc. and Mazda Motor Logistics Europe.

"Our continued momentum highlights the rising pressures for the Office of the CFO to modernize its operations and become a strategic driver of the business," said Tom Shea, CEO at OneStream. "In today's highly competitive and volatile economy, finance leaders are being asked to steer the business beyond finance in a more agile way. This creates a unique growth opportunity for OneStream's unified finance platform and paves the way for expansion of our AI and machine learning capabilities that empower CFOs to become critical drivers of business strategy, innovation, and growth."

OneStream added four new implementation partners to its global partner network, including KPMG Switzerland, and has over 250 go-to-market, implementation and development partnerships globally.

Additionally, during this same quarter, OneStream received several industry and security recognitions as a leading enterprise finance platform and pioneer in applied AI and machine learning solutions for both Finance and operations, including:

- Awarded a 2024 Artificial Intelligence Excellence Award by Business Intelligence Group
- Received the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) Impact Level 4 (DoD IL4) provisional authorization
- Recognized among the 2024 Top Workplaces USA by USA Today
- Recognized as a leader for the 7th consecutive year in the Nucleus Research CPM Technology Value Matrix 2024 report
- Named Digital World Class™ across all three matrices in the first-ever Digital World Class EPM Software report by The Hackett Group
- Named a Leader across three categories in the G2 Winter 2024 Awards
